

INDICT SIX IN BOMB PLOT CASE

Federal Grand Jury Takes Action After Investigation of Alleged Conspiracy

TO DESTROY VESSELS AND CARGOES

Other Indictments May Follow Soon—Members of the Grand Jury Threatened

New York, Nov. 9.—Indictments against six alleged German bomb plot conspirators were handed up to Judge Howe by the federal grand jury yesterday afternoon.

The men indicted are Max Breitling, Robert Fay, who said he was a German army lieutenant; Walter Scholtz, who is declared to have been engaged with Fay in the manufacture of steamship mines; Engelbert Bronkhorst, said to have furnished the explosives to Fay; Dr. Herbert Kienzie, alleged to be the Fay-Bronkhorst intermediary; and Paul Daech, who, it is asserted, was employed as a messenger to purchase explosives.

The government charges that these men entered into a conspiracy to destroy vessels and cargoes. The plot had its inception on Aug. 15 last, the indictments charge, and continued up to the time the men were arrested.

Other indictments may be obtained soon by United States Attorney H. Snowden Marshall and his assistant, John C. Knox.

It was reported in the federal building yesterday afternoon that members of the grand jury had received letters threatening their lives if they took any action which could be construed as inimical to German interests. Assistant United States Attorney Knox was questioned about the report, but declined either to deny or affirm it.

Secret service men, it was said, were endeavoring to trace the source of the letters. It was rumored that, as a result of the receipt of these letters, considerable uneasiness was felt by certain grand jurors and they will be under constant guard.

BRITISH WAR "BIG 3" NAMED; ASQUITH HEAD

Balfour and Lloyd George are Other Members of England's New War Council.

London, Nov. 9.—England's new war council has been chosen, the Evening News announced yesterday. The members are:

Premier Asquith, acting temporarily as minister of war.
First Lord of the Admiralty Balfour.
Minister of Munitions Lloyd George.
Foreign Minister Edward Grey, it is stated, will sit with this triumvirate whenever British foreign policies are involved.

The council—"the big three"—as the English are calling them already—will have direct charge of British military and naval operations. In ordinary matters they will act without consulting the rest of the cabinet. The council ministry will be given an opportunity to take part in discussions and to exercise a voice when vital policies are under consideration.

This change, foreshadowed in recent public utterances, takes over the control of the war from Lord Kitchener, secretary of state for war, acting with the entire cabinet, and places it under the domination of three men, none of whom is the actual head of the war office.

It is now understood that Lord Kitchener, the war secretary, will be absent from London for several months. In his absence the premier and Lloyd George will divide his duties.

A Great Kidney Remedy According to Thousands Of Reports

My wife has been suffering with kidney and bladder trouble in a bad form since she was nine years of age. She was in such a condition that she was confined to her bed and several doctors here treated her, but to no effect. About nine months ago she began to take Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and began to improve immediately. She is practically well now and is able to do all of her work. At the time she was sick she suffered greatly, and it looked as if she would die, but thanks to your valuable remedy, she is now a new woman. I can recommend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root as the best kidney and bladder remedy on earth and if you desire you may publish this letter in the hope that it may enable other sufferers to get relief.

Yours truly,
G. T. CERRY.

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID DISEASE

Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions. They affect all the organs and functions, membranes and tissues, and are directly responsible for the readiness with which some people contract disease.

For 40 years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been more successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects. It is distinguished for its thoroughness in purifying the blood, which it enriches and invigorates. No other medicine acts like it, for no other medicine is like it. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla to-day. Insist on having Hood's.—Adv.

SPECTACULAR RUNS IN GODDARD VICTORY

Seminary Defeated Norwich Second Team at Northfield Yesterday Afternoon by the Score of 20 to 7—Faulkner and Keefe Starred for Goddard Team.

The Goddard seminary football team won its game from the Norwich university second team at Northfield yesterday by a score of 20 to 7.

The first score came within the first seven minutes of play, when Faulkner caught a forward pass thrown him by Connor, and ran 40 yards for a touchdown. Faulkner also got the second touchdown by catching the Norwich kicker's punt and making a spectacular 90-yard run through the whole Norwich team. Faulkner kicked both goals.

The cadets' score came as the result of an intercepted forward pass when Tomlin captured the ball on Goddard's 40-yard line and took it over for a touchdown. Tomlin kicked the goal.

Goddard's third touchdown was registered by Connor on a forward pass thrown by Faulkner. This time there was a dispute over the goal and Goddard lost the point. Norwich threatened Goddard's goal line to the end of the game, for in the last minute of play she had the ball on the seminary's five-yard line. She lacked the necessary punch, however, to put the ball over and time was called before she could break through the line. A feature of the game was the defensive work of Keefe of Goddard at fullback.

The summary:

Norwich Second. Goddard.
Holman, le.....re, Kinney, Louder
Keefe, Cameron, lt.....rt, Mackintosh
Snow, lg.....rg, Macrae

Score—Goddard 20, Norwich second 7. Touchdowns—Faulkner 2, Tomlin, Connor. Goals from touchdowns—Faulkner 2, Tomlin. Referee—Courtney. Umpire—Quinn.

FEARS ANARCHY IN GREAT BRITAIN

That or Revolution the Result of More War, Earl Loreburn Tells the House of Lords.

London, Nov. 9.—In a debate on the war in the House of Lords yesterday Earl Loreburn complained of mistakes made by the government. He declared it was no exaggeration to say that if the war continued indefinitely revolution or anarchy might well follow. Lord Milner said the news published in this country was misleading from first to last, and had been constantly "doctored." The German reports, he asserted, were more trustworthy than the British.

NEW AND GREATER EUROPE.

Is Prediction of Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 9.—A new and greater Europe growing out of the war now raging, with the peoples of the warring nations coming at last to a realization of the real liberty America gained so long ago was pictured last night by the secretary of the interior, Franklin K. Lane, in an address before the State Literary and Historical association of North Carolina.

"One half of the world is at war today," said the secretary. "We look with horror upon the inhumanity of human nature and say to ourselves: 'Is this all that Christianity has brought? Have we made no further progress than to make possible this reversion to the days of Attila? What has become of that sweet song of the brotherhood of man? Was it but a spiritual opiate sung to deaden the soul of a brutal world? Whither has flown that sense of outrage against injustice, that men now die by the million because a prince was killed in Serbia?'"

"But these are the words of an unthinking despair. Surely our memories have not failed us. We must look back, look through this blinding storm of fire and see Europe that was, and that will be again. Then there was to be seen a pillar of fire leading the multitude—England trying to regain her lands for her people—Germany threatened with a transfer of political power from the few of the many—Russia slowly emerging from the middle ages with her groping Douma—France, la belle France, gentle, gracious, glorious France, firing out the philosophy incorporated in the first ten lines of our Declaration of Independence."

"Europe may turn up. Her people may be blasted by bankruptcy. Her national lines may be made to follow new channels. Her industries may be ruined. Her sons may fall and the blood and the brain of many an unknown Tolstoy, Berthoulet, Pasteur or Darwin may fertilize her shell-farowed fields. She may set up for a day new standards of national greatness. But these, all these, cannot destroy the passionate purpose of her people to own themselves, to defend themselves and to decide for themselves what chains they will wear and what sacrifices they will make. For chains and sacrifices must be; for these mean social life, and only the sustained dreams of a life within ourselves. But Europe knows that it may have what Americans long ago gained, that degree of freedom in which sacrifice is made—consciously and proudly made—for those and to those with whom we have a common interest. And this is liberty."

VILLA'S ARMY IS TRAPPED

Carranza's Forces Joining to Move Against Him at Naco

VILLA IS IN AN UGLY MOOD

Threatens Americans and Twice Sentences Doctors To Be Executed

Washington, Nov. 9.—Villa has his back to the wall. He is trapped at Naco, Sonora, with Carranza armies pressing in for what may be the final battle of the revolution, army officials declared yesterday. Reports had arrived of Villa's retirement to the border town with his main army and Gen. Obregon's arrival at Agua Prieta to head the offensive against Villa.

That Villa will be overwhelmed if he remains at Naco was the belief of American strategists. He has been outgeneraled, in their opinion and will be forced to evacuate Naco and flee to the interior hills or be routed and pushed over the border into American soil for arrest by the American border guard.

Gen. Dieguez was reported yesterday to have 6,000 men at Hermosillo to unite with Obregon's army at Agua Prieta for a joint movement against Villa. More Carranza reinforcements are arriving at Guaymas. Obregon's main army, the best of the Carranza forces, is being rushed by railroad to Hermosillo, it is reported.

That Villa may be forced to seek terms and ask amnesty from Carranza was the belief of many observers here.

VILLA IN UGLY MOOD.

Threatens Americans and Their Property.

Naco, Sonora, Nov. 9.—That Gen. Villa is in an ugly mood toward Americans is evidenced here by his threats against American citizens and property in Mexico. He has demanded $25,000 each from the Phelps-Dodge company of New York, operating the Nacopari Copper company and the Montezuma Copper company, and from the El Tigre Copper company, owned by Kansas City people. The Cananea Consolidated Copper company, another American company, has already paid $25,000 for the protection of its Cananea properties and in addition has surrendered its hospital for Villa's wounded and given a large quantity of supplies.

The treatment accorded Drs. H. R. Thigpen and James Miller, Americans, the two physicians of the Cananea company, was another indication of Villa's attitude toward Americans. Accompanied by their two chauffeurs, arrested with them, the doctors reached the border and declared they were twice sentenced to be shot by Villa during his assault upon Agua Prieta. They were making their way from Cananea to the border, they said, when arrested by Villa, who cursed them and accused them of being spies.

TROOPS LOOT MANZANILLO.

Carranzistas Rob Stores in Preference to Seeking Enemy.

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—Stories of the looting of the Mexican seaport of Manzanillo by Carranza soldiers were told yesterday by officers of the steamer Solano, which arrived here Sunday from the lower coast. The Solano carried 1200 Carranza soldiers from Guaymas to Manzanillo, near where a regiment of Villa's men was reported encamped. Instead of seeking the enemy, the Carranza men looted the stores. Policemen were overcome and women and children were injured.

FUNSTON GOES TO NOGALES.

Villa Bound There and the Garrison on Verge of Going to Carranza.

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 9.—Major General Frederick Funston left yesterday morning for Nogales, Ariz., where, according to official advice, the Villa garrison at the Mexican town just across the border is on the verge of transferring its allegiance to Carranza. General Villa is reported on his way to that place from Naco, Sonora, while General Manuel Dieguez, commanding a Carranza force said to number 7,000, is making his way north from Manzanillo.

CARRY STOMACH JOY IN YOUR VEST POCKET

The Red Cross Has Such Faith in This Digestive Remedy That They Guarantee It.

One of the greatest successes in the sale of medicine has been achieved by Mica, the standard dyspepsia remedy, and its sale is increasing so rapidly that the Red Cross Pharmacy, the popular dispenser, have had work to keep a stock on hand. It is very popular with business men, ministers, lawyers and others, whose business or professional lives are often in jeopardy, while those who have brought on indigestion through irregular eating, worry, or other causes, have found relief in this reliable remedy.

Mica-on comes in tablet form and is sold in a small box especially designed for convenience in carrying the medicine in the pocket or purse. It is pleasant to take, gives quick relief and should help any case, no matter how long a standing. This remedy has been so widely recommended that the Red Cross Pharmacy will in future sell Mica-on under a special guarantee to refund the money if it should not prove entirely satisfactory. No other dyspepsia medicine ever had a larger percentage of cures so that it could be sold in this manner. A guarantee like this speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.

There is no time like the present to do a thing that ought to be done. If extreme indigestion, acidity or flatulence has been troubling you, order Mica-on at the last time to begin eating right.—Adv.

If Cross, Feverish or Bilious Give "California Syrup of Figs"

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out of sorts, half sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach ache, diarrhea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

SHOCK LED TO DEATH.

William Dow Was in Automobile Accident at East Ryegate.

St. Johnsbury, Nov. 9.—William Dow, aged 68, a dealer in farm implements, died at Brightlook hospital yesterday morning from the effects of injuries received at East Ryegate Saturday night. Mr. Dow was on his way home from Boston in an automobile just purchased which was driven by Howard Harris of this place. At the crossing below East Ryegate station, the northbound New York express struck the auto, throwing it about 40 feet. Both men were picked up unconscious and Mr. Dow was brought to the hospital. It was first thought his condition was not dangerous as there were no fractures or internal injuries but he was unable to recover from the shock and death ensued from heart failure.

Mr. Dow was a native of Waerford and a widower. The burial will be at Passumpsic, where Mr. Dow conducted a farm for over 20 years until coming to St. Johnsbury about five years ago.

F. P. WALSH TO PUSH WORK

The Ex-Chairman of Industrial Relations Board and Associates Meet to Revive Work.

New York, Nov. 9.—Frank P. Walsh, former chairman of the extinct federal industrial relations commission, met here yesterday with 11 associates active in industrial reform projects and organized the committee on industrial relations, the object of which, it was stated, is to continue the work of the federal commission and urge on Congress the recommendations contained in the official reports of the federal commission, compiled by Mr. Walsh and Basil M. Manly.

Besides Mr. Walsh, the membership of the new committee comprises John B. Lennon, James O'Connell and Austin B. Garretson, prominent labor leaders, who were members of the federal commission. Amos Pinchot, Frederic C. Howe, immigration commissioner of New York; Bishop C. D. Williams of the Episcopal diocese of Detroit; Dante Barton, a Kansas City newspaperman; John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers; John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor; Helen Marot, of the Women's Trade Union League of New York, and Agnes Nestor of the Women's Trade Union League of Chicago.

Mr. Manly and George P. West, who were connected with the work of the federal commission, will occupy similar places with the new committee. Otto F. Bradley, who has been in charge of an anti-tuberculosis campaign in Wisconsin, also will have a place.

The announcement of organization says headquarters will be opened at Washington to carry on an active campaign and that the committee's primary object will be to support organized labor. It will have no official connection with the government, as did the federal commission.
